

User Manual

You should follow the character - who turns out to be the only survivor of Dyatlov's tourist group in the mountains. He will have to keep moving forward, explore new places, solve different tasks to understand what happened and not to die in such a difficult situation.

The game is a 2.5d side-scroller.

The game starts with a cutscene, then the game mode starts immediately. Cutscenes are very important to understand the plot of the game, with them the game begins, and they will finish the game.

The character is controlled using the keyboard.

Controls:

A	move backwards
D	move forward
SPACE	Jump
E	interact with objects

You need to move forward through the level, overcoming obstacles and solving puzzles. There is no GUI in the game, so after starting it, the transition between levels will be performed automatically.
